3. What to see/visit (some suggestions)

Novara is one of the province of the Piedmont, which reached the top of the prestigious international "Best in Travel" ranking curated by the Lonely Planet guide.

You are definitely in the 2019 place to be! (<https://www.visitpiemonte.com/en/best-travel-region-2019>)

For those who plan to stay over the weekend, according to the number of participants, we may organise a trip to the Lake of Orta, defined by the Telegraph "one of the country's most beautiful lakes... an unspoiled Italian lakes experience on an intimate scale"

(<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/travel/destinations/europe/galleries/europe-best-kept-secrets/lake-orta/>)

If you plan to organise your weekend by yourself, you may enjoy a visit to the Lake Maggiore, which is also very suggestive with its beautiful islands (i.e. Borromean islands). <https://www.italymagazine.com/featured-story/discovering-lake-maggiore-and-its-borromean-islands>

Novara is very close to the Monferrato area (closest town is Casale Monferrato), a land that deserves a visit as well.
