38th Conference of the Italian Association of Labour Economics

Department of Economics and Business Studies, University of Genoa
Genoa, 8 and 9 September 2023

Call for papers

The Italian Association of Labour Economics (AIEL) and the Department of Economics and Business Studies of the University of Genoa are pleased to invite submissions for the 38th AIEL Conference, to be held in Genoa on 8 and 9 September 2023. The programme will include invited lectures and parallel sessions. The conference will provide an opportunity to discuss issues related to labour economics and to develop research collaborations. The official language of the conference will be English.

Keynote lecture

The keynote lecture will be delivered by Joshua Angrist (MIT), 2021 Nobel Laureate in Economics.

Invited plenary session

The conference will feature a plenary session on "Family Economics" with talks by Aline Bütikofer (Norwegian School of Economics) and Libertad González (Pompeu Fabra University).

Co-organized parallel sessions

There will be parallel sessions organized in collaboration with the Italian Social Security Institute and the Joint Research Center of the European Commission. To propose the organization of parallel sessions, scholars should contact the AIEL secretariat.

Ezio Tarantelli Prize

All accepted papers will be considered for the award of the Ezio Tarantelli Prize for the best paper.

Carlo Dell'Aringa Young Labour Economist Prize

Papers presented by young researchers will be considered for the Carlo Dell'Aringa Young Labour Economist Prize, including a 1,000€ award. To be eligible for the prize, no author of the paper should have obtained the PhD since more than three years.

Submissions

Authors should submit their full draft papers in PDF format through the AIEL website (www.aiel.it). The submission deadline is 15 May 2023. Acceptance decisions will be notified by 15 June 2023.
