Call for papers

The Italian Association of Labour Economics (AIEL) and the Department of Economics and Statistics of the University of Naples Federico II are pleased to invite submissions for the 39th AIEL Conference, to be held in Naples, 3 - 5 October 2024. The programme is expected to run from 2pm on 3 October to 1pm on 5 October and will include invited lectures and parallel sessions. The conference will provide an opportunity to discuss issues related to labour economics and to develop research collaborations. The official language of the conference will be English.

Keynote lecture
The keynote lecture will be delivered by David Card (University of California, Berkeley), 2021 Nobel Laureate in Economics.

Invited plenary session
The conference will feature a plenary session on "Gender Violence and the Labour Market" with talks by Kristiina Huttunen (Aalto University) and Nuria Rodriguez-Planas (City University of New York).

Co-organized parallel sessions
There will be parallel sessions organized in collaboration with the Italian Social Security Institute and the Joint Research Center of the European Commission. To propose the organization of parallel sessions, scholars should contact the AIEL secretariat before the submission deadline.

AIEL Prizes
All conference papers will be considered for the Ezio Tarantelli Prize for the best paper. Papers authored by young scholars can be considered for the Carlo Dell'Aringa Young Labour Economist Prize, including a 1,000€ award.

Submissions
Authors should submit their full draft papers in PDF format through the AIEL webpage. The submission deadline is 1 May 2024. Acceptance decisions will be notified by 1 June 2024.
